

THE VILLAGE HAS LOST ITS IDIOT!

Join us for our Second Annual Historic Cocoa Village 5K run/walk on Friday April 1st starting at 7:30 PM. It will be epic! Don't miss out on this idiot proof new course (you know where to end...) exploring Cocoa Village. Start and finish at the Village Idiot Pub. Run three laps of this "challenging" course, with music and entertainment throughout Historic Cocoa Village. You will be rewarded at the Finish Line with a special craft brew for your efforts, which is included with your registration fee, (you must be 21 or older)! A free craft soda from a brewery will be given to participants who are under 21. The challenge will be to find our Village Idiots...

Run in your favorite tutu/idiot costume and you will be eligible to win great prizes! We will be donating a portion of the proceeds to the Cocoa Main Street!

So, now that you are an idiot detective:

- We are closing Harrison Street down until 2am, FOR ONE BIG IDIOT PARTY!
- LIVE MUSIC all night long, we promise it's a show you will remember.
- ID will be REQUIRED before the race for you to receive your free craft beer.
- Participate in raffles valued over $2k, as well as a 50/50 drawing. Craft vendors, food trucks and craft beer will be at your beck and call.
- Don't forget your costume!
